TRANSFER-STUDENT POLICY OF THE HONORS COLLEGE

1. Freshmen Transferring to Texas Southern University

The College may offer regular admission to freshmen planning to transfer to TSU if they:
-- earn a grade of C or above for each course in each semester in the freshman year;
-- earn a grade point average of at least 3.50 in each semester in the freshman year;
-- complete at least 15 semester credit hours in each semester in the freshman year;
  -- transfer FS 102, Freshman Seminar, or an equivalent course, with a grade of A or B;

2. Sophomores Transferring to Texas Southern University

The College may offer regular admission to sophomores planning to transfer to TSU if they:
-- earn a grade of C or above for each course in each semester in the sophomore year;
-- earn a grade point average of at least 3.50 in each semester in the sophomore year;
-- complete at least 15 semester credit hours in each semester in the sophomore year;
-- have an overall GPA of at least 3.50 at the end of the sophomore year;
-- qualify for classification as juniors in their first semesters in the College;
-- transfer FS 102, Freshman Seminar, or an equivalent course, with a grade of A or B;

3. Students Returning to Texas Southern University

The College may offer regular admission to applicants who have returned to TSU. These would be applicants who were not in the College before the break in their attendance. They would have to meet requirements continuing students meet. After they return to the university, in each of at least two semesters immediately before they enter the College, they should:
-- earn a C or above for each course;
-- earn a semester GPA of at least 3.5;
-- have an overall GPA of at least 3.5;
-- pass at least 15 semester credit hours.

4. Applicants from Other Honors Colleges or Programs

The College may offer regular admission to applicants in other honors programs or colleges:
-- if they meet the requirements for continuation in their current honors units, or if at the time of their graduation they were in good standing in their honors units, in their colleges or universities;
-- if they agree to meet the requirements of the Honors College during their tenures in the College.