You are required to make Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) in your degree or certificate program to be eligible for financial aid consideration. Standards are defined in the Texas Southern University Office of Student Financial Assistance (OSFA) Policy on Satisfactory Academic Progress. Students must meet and or exceed the minimum guidelines in each area in order to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress. students not maintaining these minimum criteria will be suspended and become ineligible to receive aid throughout the current academic year.

If you encounter circumstances beyond your control and are unable to fulfill the criteria stated above, you may submit an appeals form to the OSFA along with any relevant supporting documentation. By submitting this form, you are requesting reinstatement of your financial aid eligibility. The deadline for ALL SAP appeals is the last day of regular registration each semester in which you are eligible to apply. The OSFA will not accept any documentation beyond this established deadline.

A committee votes decisions concerning SAP appeals on. The decision of the committee is final and will not be overturned by ANY University administrative official. The committee will notify students of their decision by letter within 20 business days of the date your appeal is documented and received in the OSFA.

In order for the committee to review your appeal, you must:

1. Complete Section’s A and B below:
   - Attach documentation that clearly supports your explanation (for example, a doctor’s statement, a death certificate, a letter of termination, or a letter from a professional counselor).

   Attach a current Texas Southern University academic transcript. A transcript can be obtained from the Registers’ office, located on the second floor of the Bell building, or from the TSU website @ www.tsu.edu. If you are a transfer student, you must provide us with a transcript from that college or university from which you are transferring.

   Read all the information provided and sign Section B.

2. Submit the signed form along with all documentation before the last day of regular registration each semester in which you are eligible to apply. Documents may be submitted at the front counter, mailed, or faxed but it is the student’s responsibility to make sure these documents have been received.

   1. Students must respond within 10 business days if your appeal is returned to you due to missing and/or Incomplete information.
   2. Allow 20 business days for a review and decision by the OSFA Appeals Committee.
In order for your appeal to be processed, please PRINT neatly in blue or black ink.
