ATTENTION!! ALL FIRST-TIME FRESHMEN ENTERING TEXAS SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY FALL 2007

The Texas Education Code, section 51.907*, now states that all first-time freshmen as of the fall semester of 2007 or later may be permitted to drop no more than six courses between initial enrollment in and graduation from Texas Southern University. This number includes any courses a transfer student may have dropped during enrollment at another institution of higher education in Texas.

Courses that are counted toward the six-course limit include the following:

1. the student was able to drop the course without receiving a grade (A, B, C, D, or F) or incurring an academic penalty
2. the student's transcript indicates or will indicate that the student was enrolled in the course (signified by a W grade)
3. the student is not dropping the course in order to withdraw from the University.

There may be exemptions from the above limit for good cause provided the student can document good cause. For information concerning exemptions visit www.em.tsu.edu. Also, any course dropped prior to September 10, 2007, will not count toward the six-course drop limit. Future deadlines may vary; however, they will be published as soon as they are determined.
